Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Hudson High School alumni are holding a reunion on September 2, 1989, and many activities will take place; and,

WHEREAS, Because of a declining enrollment, Hudson High School had to close its doors and the present alumni will be the last surviving alumni to have graduated from Hudson High School; and,

WHEREAS, As friendships are renewed, the alumni will participate in a small parade, a touch football game, a banquet, and other fun activities; and,

WHEREAS, For this one day, tales of sporting triumphs and defeats, who dated who, and discussions of various teachers and their attributes or lack thereof will abound; and,

WHEREAS, This high school alumni reunion will bring lasting memories as friendships which crossed "class" distinctions will be removed as well; and,

WHEREAS, Although the alumni may have less hair and more substance, each and everyone will marvel at how much their schoolmates have stayed the same; and,

WHEREAS, Friendship and camaraderie will be the order of the day, and it is appropriate for the Governor to make note of the South Dakota gatherings of historic moments:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby declare these alumni an endangered species and proclaim September 2, 1989, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Seventh Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
